WOMAN STRANGLED
HOME SET ON FIRE TO CONCEAL CRIME

Tragedy Discovered by Accident—Ex-Broker, Her Husband, Held by Sheriff.

MOUNTAIN VIEW, N. H., Sept. 28.—Mrs. Fred L. Small, wife of a retired Boston real estate broker, was found today in a room which had been set on fire, and was strangled by a rope tied about her neck and fastened on the bed.

These facts indicating that she had been murdered were discovered when her body was taken from the ruins today.

The woman's body had dropped with the burning floor into the basement and the head and neck lodged in a pool of water. The rope which had been drawn twice around the neck and secured by a knot at the back, was preserved.

Some people look well in glasses—some people do not.

You think the difference is in the people—it is probably in the glasses.

The only way to get the "very best" in eyeglasses is to come where ONLY the "very best" is made.

Our policy is to give you a "little bit more"—in satisfaction—in dependable service—and in quality of material than you pay for.

at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, she found before the fire was discovered, a woman lying on the floor in a room which had been set on fire. The woman was strangled by a rope tied about her neck and fastened on the bed.

The local agent of a life insurance company to-day made known that in January last he had written a letter to Mr. Small, who had written a letter to him, on the same of Small and his wife for $10,000.

In 1904 Small was a N. H. resident, widely known as one of the most successful of the Boston National League Baseball Club, and for information of Mr. Small's address, he was awarded $10,000.

12 PARALYSIS DEATHS
AND 26 CASES TO-DAY

Slight Increase Over Yesterday's Fatalities Shown in Health Bureau Report.

The Department of Health's report to-day on the infantile paralysis epidemic shows twenty-six new cases, the same as yesterday, and twenty deaths, an increase of two over yesterday. Compared two figures follow:

Boroughs	To-day	Yesterday
Manhattan	12	13
Brooklyn	6	4
Queens	3	2
Richmond	0	1
Total	21	20

Boroughs	To-day	Yesterday

The total number of new cases to date is 2,611 deaths. Deaths total 2,582.

The 40,000 children excluded from school Monday because they had been out of the city just prior to school opening will all be back at school on Oct. 2. Fully 25,000 of those either have returned or can return at once, Commissioner Emmons announced to-day.

HELD FOR $30,000 THEFT
FROM A TROLLEY CAR

Assistant Postmaster at Glens Falls Accused of Taking Postal Funds.

On the charge of stealing $30,000 postal funds, Bernard Hawley, Assistant Postmaster at Glens Falls, N. Y., when arraigned before United States Commissioner Clarence S. Houghton to-day, was held in $5,000 bail for examination. In default of surety he was committed to the Tombs.

The money Hawley is accused of stealing was being conveyed by trolley from the Lake George Post Office to the Glens Falls office. While the car was enroute it was stopped so that the conductor could telephone to the power house. The mail pouch mysteriously vanished from the car platform.

Hawley's house was near the place where the stop was made. A woman detective gained Hawley's confidence and it is said he made admissions to her which justified his arrest.

TUG TO CROSS OCEAN.

The Eugene F. Moran Said to Have Been Bought by British Government.

Scores of tramp steamers, ferriboats and other craft joined this afternoon in tooting a farewell to the tug Eugene F. Moran when that vessel started for Halifax, preliminary to a trans-Atlantic trip.

It is reported that the tug has been purchased by the British Government. She is 185 feet over all and of exceptional power. Capt. John E. Chambers had with him to-day a crew of eleven men.

FOUND SHOCKED TO DEATH.

Power Station Manager Killed in High Tension Room.

James Kelly of No. 69 Locust Street, Flushing, was shocked to death today in the high tension room of the New York and Queens Electric Light and Power Company's sub-station at Bayshore. Kelly, who was manager of the station, was found in a sitting posture on the floor.

It is believed he met death while working about some wires, although his duties did not require him to make repairs.

DEAD HUSBAND AIDS NO. 2.

Widow, Bewed, Gets Increase in Allowance From Huber Estate.

Husband No. 2 being unable to support her in the style to which she is accustomed, Mrs. Martin C. Wright, widow of the late George H. Huber, pioneer showman, who eloped with Martin Wright, son of William J. Wright, ex-Tammany leader, today asked Surrogate Chanin to grant her an allowance of $250 a month from her deceased husband's $250,000 estate. The Surrogate granted her $100 a month.

The income of Huber's estate is $2,000 a month and is constantly increasing.

SHOE POLISHES

For all the family—children as well as grown-ups. They combine liquid and paste in a paste form. Are very easy to apply without soiling the hands and clothes and with a few vigorous rubs produce a brilliant lasting waterproof shine.

They are easiest to use and the use of just a brush or cloth will bring back the luster to the dusty, damp shoes without fresh application of the polish.

They contain no acid and will not crack the leather.
